One Year Bible

Imprint these words of mine on your hearts and minds.

Deuteronomy 11:18

One of the greatest comforts in life is knowing that God speaks. There are many voices trying to make sense of everything, but God's voice thunders over them all with a promise to a world that seems like it is unravelling: God commands the universe.

What you are about to read is the prologue to the rest of the Bible. In the first few books of the Old Testament, you will find a sweeping story of how God created the world, the world rebels, and God promises to establish a people for the glory of His Name through one man, Abraham - and through him, the nation of Israel. You will also read portions of the New Testament, where you will find that all the promises of the Old Testament are fulfilled in God's Son, Jesus Christ. As you read from both the Old and New Testaments, the grandeur of God's eternal purposes, and Christ's unrivaled worth will confront your heart and soul by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Our hope is that you encounter the living God through His word. There may be sections of Scripture that you do not understand; you might even fall behind a few chapters during the readings - that's okay! The point is not to fill a spiritual quota, but to hear the God who speaks. In the Scriptures before you, God is speaking.
